

17TH TWO-WAY BILINGUAL IMMERSION CONFERENCE 2009 MONTEREY, CALIFORNIA

Hello TWBI Conference Attendees!

We are looking forward to seeing you in July and want to let you about the following developments. Because of the sluggish economy the host hotels, the Marriott and Portola Plaza, have kicked in to help the TWBI Conference 2009! Both hotels are offering government rates (you have to ask for them and show your district identification when checking in) and the Portola Plaza just dropped their room rates to $169 a night! Unheard of! If you reserved at a higher rate, call in and cancel your reservation and reserve it at this new low price! You might be able to bring yet another TWBI educator at this wonderful new rate! Please get the word out! Registration closes June 25th! There is still time to register!
